Shamima Begum : Not Wanted Here

The Home Secretary's decision to refuse Jihadi bride, Shamima Begum entry back to Britain must be applauded. But the matter cannot be left there. She left Britain to join our enemy, the Islamic State, marrying one of its fighters. She supported the actions of the Caliphate in their attempted genocide of the Syrian people. Her Kurdish captors should now hand her over to the legitimate government of Syria for trial and punishment. She is not wanted here!

Brexit Spin

As our political masters continue to argue over Brexit, the Remain "spin doctors" launch wave after wave of "project fear" arguments.

One is to claim how much money EU migrants put into our economy. But why don't they mention that many just come here to sponge off of our benefits system? Last year it was revealed that over 40% of recently arrived EU migrants are dependent on some form of in-work benefits and jobless EU migrants cost the British taxpayer £886 million in benefits.

Double Standards

A pro-Brexit demonstrator has been arrested for calling Anna Soubry MP a "Traitor" and a "Nazi". In my NF days, on many a march or demo I was called a "Nazi" by extreme left counter-demonstrators. The Police stood and watched, but no one was arrested.

In Birmingham, windows in five Mosques were deliberately broken in one night. Police said they are treating the incident as a potential "terrorist" incident. Every NF and BNP HQ has been attacked over the years and a nationalist owned print works was firebombed some years ago. But no reaction from the "anti-terrorist" police. It seems the police are only interested in defending Muslims and the parliamentary elite. This attitude only serves to undermine public support for the police and cause resentment.

Gang Knife Crime

Epidemic is a Black Issue!

As grieving parents mourn their dead children, murdered in the epidemic of knife crime that is sweeping Britain, police and politicians argue over who is to blame. But gang violence will only be stopped when our politically correct "elite" admits it is largely, a black problem.

Over the past 12 months, almost 300 people have been stabbed to death in Britain. In the first three months of this year 27 young people were stabbed to death in London alone. But, because of political correctness, the police and the politicians choose to ignore the fact that, the majority of the victims were black, and the majority of their killers were black. Gang violence is a black issue!

Black Gangs Fuel Knife Crime Epidemic

Like the sexual grooming scandals in the Midlands, where politically correct police and social workers chose to ignore the racial element that was adult Muslim men grooming vulnerable white girls, today's authorities, also afraid of being accused of being "racist" are largely in denial that most inner-city gangs, responsible for the killings, are black!

The "stop and Search" tactics successfully used by police were scaled back on the orders of the Home Secretary following criticism by self-elected "spokespersons" of our black communities, and knife crimes rose dramatically!

Even the former race watchdog chairman, Trevor Phillips, who is black, has called for "ministers to discuss why a worryingly large number of violent crimes are committed by black teens on other black youngsters."

Mr Phillips also accused politicians and police of "not acknowledging race, and the BBC of "white-washing the truth"! In a recent report he claimed, "to read our newspapers and listen to our media you would imagine that race played no part at all.

The BBC in particular is guilty of white-washing the truth".

So, a black, former "race Czar" can see the problem but our politically correct "Elite" cannot or will not. Instead, they argue about police numbers and budgets.

Self-styled "spokespersons" for black communities, point to a disproportional number of black teenagers excluded from schools, a disproportional number of black people in prison and blame it on "racism". But they never look into their own communities where the problem really lies. "Racism" isn't responsible for the slaughter of hundreds of black kids on our streets. They are being murdered by other black kids. It's a black problem!

Social media has a part to play as well. Their politically correct censorship tactics ban Tommy Robinson for "hate speeches" but continue to carry videos featuring black gangs and "drill" music which advocates and incites violence.

The Courts have a vital part to play in the battle against knife crime. Jailing an offender may not rehabilitate, but it will keep them off the streets for a while making our lives safer! Under a law introduced in 2015 anyone over the age of 16 convicted of a second weapon possession offence is meant to be jailed for a minimum of 6 months. But, the 2018 figures show that just 45% of second time knife carriers were jailed, the rest getting cautions or community service orders. If we are going to win the battle against these knife wielding thugs then substantial custodial sentences must be mandatory for first time offenders of all ages.

We need to start locking up violent offenders at the first sign of trouble. These thugs should be punished so severely that they will never carry a knife again!

Forget Political Correctness: It's time to take our streets back!

NEWS AROUND BRITAIN

Labour Betrays 17 Million Voters over Brexit

The Labour Party has reneged on its promise to honour the result of the Brexit referendum and now supports calls for a second vote.

Despite its manifesto commitment to, "accept the result of the referendum", not only does Labour now support a second vote on whatever leave deal becomes available, but also supports the inclusion of a "Remain" option on the ballot, despite 17.4 million voters opting to "Leave" in the previous referendum. Labour MPs representing constituencies that voted Leave are now fearful for their seats in any future elections, fearing that their Leave voters will turn against them. These seats will become prime targets for UKIP and the new Brexit Party of Nigel Farage.

Alison Chabloz Appeal Fails

Singer-songwriter, Alison Chabloz failed to have her conviction overturned in an appeal hearing at Southwark Crown Court.

Alison Chabloz

In May 2018, Ms Chabloz was convicted of posting "grossly offensive" material on the internet, namely three satirical songs that poked fun at the Holocaust. She was given a 20 week suspended prison sentence. With her appeal against conviction failing, Judge Christopher Hehir confirmed her suspended prison sentence and banned her from posting items on social media for one year, and ordered her to complete 180 hours of unpaid community work.

Predictably, some British Jewish groups welcomed the verdict, describing it as "sending a strong message that in Britain, Holocaust denial and anti-Semitic conspiracy theories will not be tolerated". But perhaps they are celebrating in haste, and conveniently ignoring that Judge Hehir specifically stated, "We emphasise that anti-Semitism is NOT a crime, just as Holocaust denial is not".

Supreme Court rules Criminals with families CAN be deported

Foreign-born criminals who have appealed against deportation orders on the grounds they have families in Britain will no longer be able to use this loophole to escape deportation. After dismissing appeals from a Nigerian fraudster and a Jamaican drug dealer, the Supreme Court ruled that having British-born dependants did not give convicted criminals the right to stay in Britain.

Internet Giants Censor Tommy Robinson

Tommy Robinson Censored

Internet Giants, Facebook and Twitter have closed the accounts of Tommy Robinson over allegations that he broke their rules on "hate speech".

Tommy, a founder of the English Defence League and currently a consultant to UKIP, had over 1 million followers on Facebook.

YouTube are still carrying Tommy Robinson videos but are under pressure to close this platform.

NEWS AROUND BRITAIN

Free Speech Campaigners Protest in Court

Dozens of free speech campaigners disrupted court proceedings at Westminster Magistrates Court, where Brexit supporter, James Goddard was facing charges of harassing the former Conservative Party MP, Anna Soubry by calling her a "Nazi" and a "Traitor" at a mass lobby outside Parliament.

Demonstrators Invaded Court

The demonstrators, many wearing yellow vests similar to those worn by anti-establishment demonstrators in France, stormed into the court chanting, "Soubry is a Nazi". Two demonstrators entered the dock area and sat chatting to Mr Goddard who had earlier pleaded not guilty to the harassment charges, commenting, "It's not illegal to heckle an MP. All this is wrong". Mr Goddard's solicitor, said his client does not deny calling Soubry a "Nazi" and a "Traitor" but would rely on a defence of "reasonable behaviour" and "true comment".

District Judge Grant, released Mr Goddard on bail, ordering him to reappear at the court on July 19th. The Judge then exited the court to chants of "shame on you".

After the court case, several of the demonstrators went to the Westminster offices of the Attorney-General, Geoffrey Cox QC, to complain about the persecution of Mr Goddard. Unfortunately Mr Cox was not there, and the demonstrators occupied the offices until police arrived and asked them to leave. No arrests were made.

Obituary

Alan Welfare
1941-2019

It is with great sadness that we learned of the sudden death of our Comrade Alan Welfare

Alan joined Mosley's Union Movement as a teenager in the 1960s. He was active in East London. Alan later joined the League of St George and made the "Pilgrimage to the Izer" in Flanders on several occasions. A committed European he lived in Spain for a time before moving to the West Country.

His surprise death followed a stroke.

Our condolences to Alan's wife and two children.

Nation Europa

Was Europe the Birthplace of the Human Race?

Doubt has been cast on the widely accepted opinion that the birthplace of the human race was in sub-Saharan Africa, following the carbon dating of two fossils found in Greece and Bulgaria.

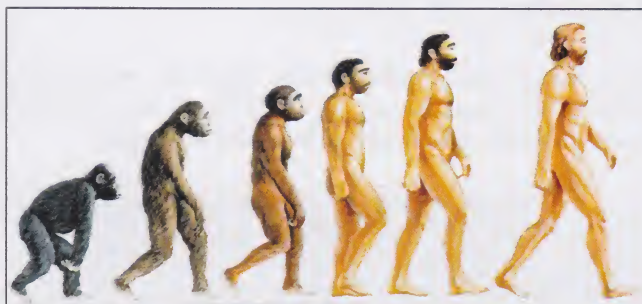

Evidence indicates that the ape-like creature they belonged to was the oldest pre-human known, dating back some 7.2 million years. This is several hundreds of thousands of years older than similar pre-human fossils found in Africa. The implication is that humans first evolved from their ape-like cousins not in Africa, but in Europe.

Other fossils found in this part of Europe revealed the region was covered in savannah grassland, and was home to giraffes, gazelles and rhinos, all previously thought to be natives of Africa.

A Canadian professor who Co-authored the report said this dating allows us to move the human-ape split, from Africa into Southern Europe.

Making Europe the true "cradle of humanity".

* * * * *

Was Europe the "Cradle of Humanity" ?

The study of the European fossils was conducted by the University of Tübingen, in Germany and CT scans were used to visualise the internal structure of the tooth and jawbone. Whilst carbon dating established these were older than fossils found in Africa, it was noticed that the European fossils had dental traits seen in both modern and early humans, whilst the African fossils only had traits seen in great apes and pre-humans.

RACE

"The First Reality of European Union"

In 1948, Europe was still a predominantly White nation, as then untroubled by the mass influx from the Third World. Germany was still occupied by allied forces and partitioned by the various occupying armies. In Britain, Sir Oswald Mosley was campaigning vigorously for a United Europe, a European Union of the people. In this article, first printed in "Union" magazine on the 15th of May 1948, Sir Oswald Mosley confirmed that the foundation of European unity is RACE!

"Race is the first reality of European Unity. The rest is mostly words just like the old League of Nations.

This unique stock of men in Europe has in fact produced the culture, the values and the achievement of the West.

This race, in their family of Europe has produced most things that matter on this globe. This achievement has been the result of their character, which in turn was the result of their Race.

Horses go further and faster than donkeys because they are horses and not donkeys. We cannot avoid the basic facts of nature even if we would. Nor can we drown them beneath a verbiage of words. If we are to build, then surely we must build on real foundations, and I know that we do.

Therefore I affirm the fact that the first reality and rock foundation of European Union is RACE!

Who are our nearest kindred? The answer is the German people. The British and the Germans are the most closely related of all European peoples. The Northern French also belong to this close circle of Race and Family, and were united with the Germans under Charlemagne.

Near in Blood to us and the Germans are the whole Northern block of Sweden, Norway and Denmark. A related stock is also the great family of the Latin nations whose culture has adorned the illuminated pages of European history.

European Union needs all of these peoples. All that matters in the past, they have in common: the future can belong to all of them!

What today is the first lack in the Union of Europe? It is that people who are most closely related to us in Blood and Race are divided in their lands and subjected by the British government, and others, to an alien oppression.

The unity of Germany and full restoration of all of her lands and peoples is the first necessity of European Union. Whilst we permit German lands and people to be divided and subjected to both Russian Communism, and to a variety of alien occupation, we commit a crime against our own Blood.

You cannot deny nature; you cannot create in defiance of reality.

The Germans must and will unite in freedom; this is the principle which I ask the kindred people of Britain to affirm and, in doing, to build the Europe of the future on foundations which will endure.

Union Movement declares the right of each great people of Europe to unite, and then as a united people, to enter the wider Union of Europe!"

Mosley: A new European Union built on RACE!

Church of England Condemns Sharia Law in Britain

The Archbishop of Canterbury, leader of the Church of England, has warned that Islamic Sharia law is incompatible with British Christian culture and values, and must never be allowed to become part of the British legal system.

In a recent report, the most senior figure in the church, Archbishop Justin Welby blamed high levels of immigration from Muslim countries for demands to legalise forced marriage, allow multiple wives (polygamy) and the marrying of close family members. Britain's laws have developed over 500 years based on the culture and values, both of which are substantially different from those adopted by Islam, he said.

His views reflect a complete about turn from his predecessor, Lord Rowan Williams, who supported incorporating Sharia law into the British legal system.

The Archbishop's comments followed a Home Office report that recommended that all couples marrying in Mosques should also have to undergo a legally binding civil marriage ceremony in a register office so that Muslim brides would have the full protection of British Civil law. At present, under Sharia law, men can simply demand a divorce from the Sharia courts but women usually have to pay large amounts of money to secure their divorce.

Sharia courts also enforce the Halal method of slaughtering livestock. This involves animals having their throats cut without first being stunned. A practice condemned by many animal welfare groups as "extremely cruel and barbaric".

Luton, England, 2001

Sharia Law Supports Capital Punishment

It is thought that there are around 85 Sharia courts operating throughout Britain that award or refuse divorces, child custody and business disputes, to those willing to accept their jurisdiction.

None of their rulings have any validity in British law.

Dutch Voters Swing to Right

The ruling coalition government of Mark Rutte's VVD party received a severe blow as Dutch voters switched their support to the relatively new Forum for Democracy party, which fought on a Euro-sceptic, anti-immigration platform.

The Forum for Democracy party (FvD) won 12 seats in the upper house of the Dutch parliament, as many as those of Prime Minister Mark Rutte's VVD party ending its majority in the Dutch Senate.

Unfortunately, another casualty of the switch to the FvD was the nationalist; Party for Freedom (PPV) led by hard-liner, Geert Wilders, which lost four of its nine Senate Seats.

The FvD, led by Thierry Baudet, took the position that the party was the only one dedicated to defending Western Christian Culture and values in the Netherlands.

Lost Seats: Geert Wilders

The FvD is now forecast to win four seats in the upcoming European elections.

Latvian SS Veterans March

On a cold wet March morning over 1000 Latvians marched through the capital Riga to commemorate the soldiers of the Latvian SS who died fighting with Germany to free Latvia from Russian occupation.

Over 140,000 Latvians joined the Latvian Legion of the Waffen SS during WW2, and 50,000 were killed in the fighting against the Russian occupying troops.

In 1990, March 16th was declared "Legionnaire Day" and a remembrance march has taken place to honour the memory of those killed fighting the Red Army.

In many parts of Latvia the veterans are viewed as "freedom fighters" who fought against Communist occupation. During the occupation, tens of thousands of Latvians were either executed or sent to concentration camps in Siberia.

"Legionnaire Day" began with a service of Remembrance and thanksgiving at St Johannes church, followed by a march through the old town of Riga, led by a clergyman from the church. The Latvian veterans were joined by family members and SS veterans from Germany, Estonia, Sweden, Lithuania and the Netherlands. Together they made their way to the "Freedom Monument" in the centre of town where wreaths were laid and prayers recited. A few counter-demonstrators tried to disrupt the march but were dealt with robustly by local police

Finland

Finland Wakes Up to the Cost of Immigration

Anger is mounting in liberal Finland over the cost of immigration. A study by the influential Suomen Perusta think-tank has revealed that an average Iraqi migrant moving to Finland and aged between 20 and 24 will cost the Finnish taxpayer almost 700,000 euros in his lifetime.

A Somali migrant of a similar age was estimated to be even more expensive, costing 844,000 euros over the same period. Immigrant children also have educational costs and higher healthcare demands and are estimated to cost taxpayers over 1 million euros during their lifetime. Iraqis and Somalis are the most common migrants with a total of 8000 arriving last year alone.

These will end up costing taxpayers an estimated 6.4 Billion euros. The second generation migrants who have grown up in Finland are still 8 times more likely to receive income support benefits than their native Finnish counterparts.

Germany

New Row over Hitler's House

A new legal battle has begun over the amount of compensation the Austrian government must pay after seizing the house where Adolf Hitler was born from the former owner.

Adolf Hitler's Birthplace

The house, in Braunau, Northern Austria, was where Hitler was born on April 20th 1889, had become a place of pilgrimage for National Socialists from all over the world. Privately owned by Gerlinde Pommer, and has been empty since 2011. In 2016, the Austrian government seized the building and offered the owner just 300,000 euros in compensation. This offer was rejected as being far too low, given the historical importance of the building, and the case went to the Regional Court, who agreed with the owner and awarded her 1.5 million euros instead. The state will now appeal.

OSTARA THE GODDESS OF SPRING

The traditional Festival of Spring and the Spring Solstice have largely vanished into the Christian festival of Easter, but what is the Festival of Spring and the Spring Solstice? Both of which were celebrated by our North European ancestors long before Christianity.

Ostara: The Goddess of Spring

Like many Christian festivals, Easter has its origins in Pagan times. As Christians celebrate the “re-birth” or resurrection of the founder of their religion, Jesus Christ, they were preceded by the Pagans of Northern Europe who honoured the Norse Goddess, “Ostara,” or “Eostre,” as she was known by the West Saxons. And, while the Christian festival of Easter is a moveable festival, occurring on various dates in March or April, the Pagan festival of Ostara, was determined by the date of the vernal, or spring equinox, when the position of the sun creates an astronomical phenomenon when day and night are of equal length. This always occurs on either March 20th or 21st. After the death of winter, spring brought longer days and the re-birth of the trees and plants in the North European forests and fields. The trees were budding, the birds nesting and the sun gathered strength day by day. “Mother Earth” was being “re-born”. It was a time for the planting of crops.

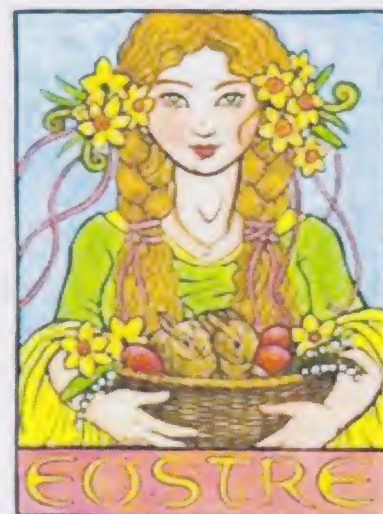

The animals of the forest were emerging and breeding, hares and rabbits were plentiful and birds began to lay their eggs.

The Goddess Ostara (pictured right) was venerated as the divinity of the radiant dawn, and a bringer of fertility and growth. Bonfires were lit and feasting was held for two days.

As we approach the spring equinox, remember the Goddess Ostara, and the goodness she brings us mortals. Go into the woods and forests and see the proof for yourself, how the rules of nature are more powerful than the rules of man.

And give thanks!

The author is a member of an Essex-based Pagan group, and has studied and practiced various forms of Paganism for over 30 years.

Zionists Target Corbyn

Two-fold Attack on Labour Leader

Labour leader Jeremy Corbyn is facing a two-fold attack on his leadership from within his party and from without. The outsiders are eight former Labour MPs who recently quit the party to form their own "Independent Group" (TIG), claiming the Labour party under Corbyn is "soft" on incidents of "anti-Semitism" and is "institutionally anti-Semitic".

Some Labour insiders, including prominent figures in the trade unions, claim Corbyn is a target of Zionists because of his support for Palestinian causes which has led him to criticise Israel on several occasions. One Labour MP accused Israel of funding the rebels, but withdrew the accusation after coming under pressure. The Independent Group have denied this. The theory is that Israel is horrified at the prospect of Corbyn becoming Prime Minister one day and formally recognising the Palestinian authorities. Therefore he must be overthrown.

Corbyn Supports the Palestinian Cause

Although TIG denies links with Israel, it is a remarkable co-incidence that of the eight Labour defectors, six, Joan Ryan, Mike Gapes, Chris Leslie, Chuka Amunna, Angela Smith, and Luciana Berger are, according to the information website Wikipedia, registered officers or supporters of the Labour Friends of Israel lobby group!

Another Labour MP to quit the party over alleged anti-Semitism, Ian Austin, has not joined TIG but prefers to be completely independent.

Ian Austin is also a registered supporter of the Labour Friends of Israel!

The other group campaigning to remove Corbyn are known as the "Future Britain Group". This group do not at this stage intend leaving the Labour party, but instead prefer to act as a "Campaign group" within the party. They too have criticised Labour's handling of complaints of anti-Semitism and have called for Corbyn to stand down. The group was founded by Labour's deputy-leader Tom Watson, and Darren Jones, Labour MP for Bristol North-West. Both are registered supporters of the Labour Friends of Israel!

Corbyn: Targeted by Zionists

At its inaugural meeting, held in a Parliamentary committee room, several of Labour's current front-bench team attended including, Gloria De Piero and former front-benchers, Yvette Cooper, Liam Byrne, Rachel Reeves, and Caroline Flint. All are registered supporters of the Labour Friends of Israel!

Fortunately for Corbyn, the Labour leader is elected not by MPs, but the whole of the Labour membership, and so far the members have been remarkably loyal to him. In a pushback against what is seen by some as an attempted pro-Zionist "coup", it may well be that many of the plotters will face votes of "no confidence" and de-selection procedures from the constituencies.

In fact the coup could turn into the type of pogrom that the extreme-left excel at!
